Look through your fingers.

Look right.

Look left.

Look down.

Look up.

Look all around you.

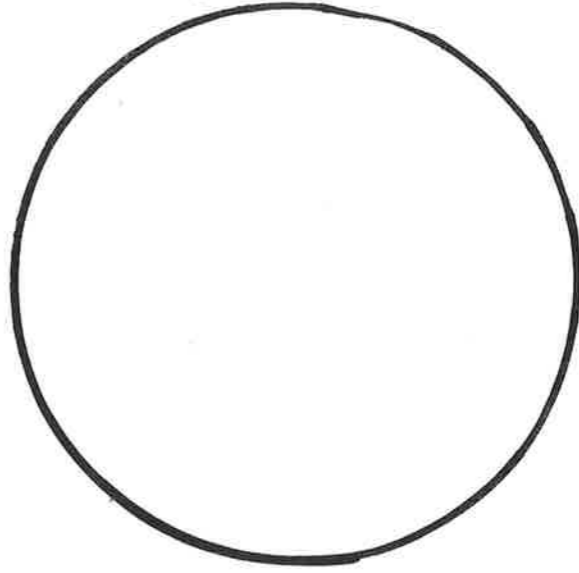

Slow looking moments.....

Look at a painting for one minute.

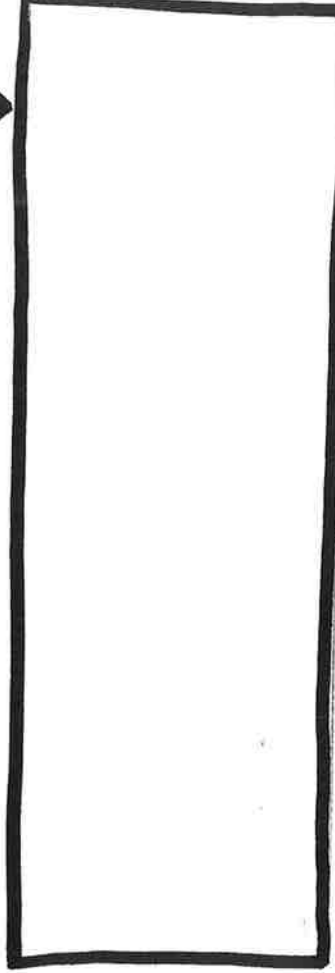

How does it make you feel?

Fill this circle with your words

Lie on the floor. What shapes do you see?

Can you draw them here?

A graphic featuring a black circle with a white sign that reads "Welcome to DULWICH PICTURE GALLERY". The circle has short lines radiating from it, suggesting a sun or a spotlight. Below the sign is the text "My name is" followed by a large empty rectangular box for drawing.

In what year was Dulwich Picture Gallery founded?

Look carefully at Jan van Huysum's 'Vase with Flowers'. What unusual detail can be found on the vase itself?

Gallery 2 - Italian Paintings

What animal can you see in Veronese's 'Saint Jerome with Girolamo Petrobelli'?

Which painting in this room depicts the patron Saint of Music?

Gallery 11 - French Paintings

What might the winged figure on top of our eighteenth century clock represent?

Gallery 1 - Spanish Paintings

Find the portrait of a royal with a big chin. Who is he?

One painting in this room comes from somewhere outside Europe, what country does it come from?

Gallery 10 - British Portraits

What is the name of the only female painter on display in this room (and the whole Gallery!)?

There's a painting in this room that depicts which British monarch as a small child?

Gallery 4 - Dutch and Flemish Paintings

Why are there blue leaves in Adam Pynacker's 'Landscape with Sportsman and Game'?

Gallery 5 - Dutch and Flemish Paintings

Look at both Jacob van Ruisdael's 'Landscape with Windmills near Haarlem' and John Constable's copy below. What figures and animals are missing from Constable's copy?

What large stringed instrument can you see in Gerrit Dou's 'Woman Playing a Clavichord'?
